New, Important Initiative Launched By Chamber of Commerce

This is a critical year for the future economy of San Jose and Silicon Valley. Unemployment rates are up to the highest level in six years and news of layoffs hit our local economy each day. Yet, across the nation people are looking to Silicon Valley for economic leadership.

The San Jose Silicon Valley Chamber of Commerce is the largest business organization serving the Silicon Valley with nearly 2,000 member businesses representing companies of all sizes, location, and industry.

...and what it will take to restart the Silicon Valley economy.

...elected officials who will help our slumping
